

New Vacancy
CORPORATE PARTNER
Worcester office

The ideal candidate will be an experienced Corporate dealmaker of 7+ years' PQE, with proven technical skills and a solid track record of leading on good sized transactions. This role would suit a driven lawyer with a network of contacts and the potential of a strong client following, and someone who enjoys engaging in business development. You'll have a hands-on approach to supporting a diverse range of clients, from start-ups to SME's and well established businesses, as well as both outstanding client care skills and the ability to manage a varied and complex caseload.

Responsibilities

- Offering expert legal advice to clients on a range of corporate matters including mergers/acquisitions and disposal of assets or shares, investments, sale and purchase agreements, management buy-ins/-outs, joint ventures, succession planning, business structures, banking/finance, corporate governance and business start-ups.
- Collaborate closely with clients and play a key role in managing corporate transactions.
- Draft and negotiate contracts and appropriate legal documents.
- Support team and firm growth through coordinating and engaging in business development activities.

Why join us?

- You'll get a competitive salary, 30 days' holiday p/a (plus three days at Christmas and Bank Holidays), private medical and healthcare cash plan, income protection cover, death in service, pension and other perks. Parking and hybrid working included.
- Quality work that will stimulate and support your professional development – we're well recognised in the Legal 500 and Chambers Guide.
- A supportive 'people first' culture – there's a big focus on wellbeing and work/life balance at mfg which recently contributed to 90% of our people responding in an engagement survey that it's a great place to work and they're proud to work here.
- Committed to inclusion, we aim to employ a diverse section of the community whilst our work for good causes continues to flourish. Many of our people are actively involved in CSR, Sports & Social and Health & Wellbeing groups.
